

Ryanne Hartman - Senior Weights and Measures Specialist | Michigan Department of Agriculture and Rural Development Weights and Measures Program

As the Senior Weights and Measures Specialist Ryanne has oversight of the service registration program with responsibility for the review and reporting of all Place in Service reports submitted by industry. She also administers, maintains, and creates new registration exams, directs field audits of submitted service work, and direct field audits of submitted service work.