

Elisa Stritt – NCWM Director of Operations

After graduating from Arizona State University, Elisa returned to her home state of Nebraska and joined the NCWM team in 2013, taking on the roles of Meeting Planner and Office Manager, and currently Director of Operations. Her responsibilities include sourcing and coordinating all NCWM and NTEP meetings, serving as the primary liaison for the NCWM membership, and providing diligent oversight of the organization's financial matters. Elisa's favorite part of her work is the meaningful relationships she has formed with NCWM members and meeting attendees. Most recently, Elisa completed the non-profit management trifecta, earning the Certified Association Executive (CAE), Certified Meeting Planner (CMP), and Certified in Exhibition Management (CEM).